Alcoa Foundation Gives $25,000 For Hospital

By F. M. L.

With unprecedented generosity here, the Alcoa Foundation has granted the St. Edward Hospital Development Fund $25,000 toward the hospital's goal of $250,000 to build anew.

Announcement came at mid-week.

It puts St. Edward Hospital at the $200,000 plus mark or 80 percent of what appeared to be an impossible goal for Cameron and Milam County.

The Alcoa Foundation's presentation should spur us toward the final goal even as plans definitely can materialize for groundbreaking in the spring. Now we know it can be.

The beautiful part of such a contribution is that a major American manufacturing concern, in behalf of its employees living in Milam County, can contribute to employees' well being and the well being of all Milam Countians in that generosity. Agriculture, for example, benefits from industry's beneficence. Cameron benefits from a Rockdale-based industry. Milam County benefits.

That is commendable co-operation. Alcoa President John Harper, Rockdale Works Manager Howard Chrisco and the board of Alcoa Foundation are to be congratulated for this example. It is truly an example of industrial citizenship.

Leadership of the fund program deserve congratulation as well.

109-109-109

Our thanks to Herald readers for response to our request for opinions on "Now Showing." An adjacent story tells how it goes. It is encouraging to try something new and see response suggesting a new publication can be permanent.

109-109-109

This generation in Milam County will be remembered as the builders, the men and women who took history by the hand and wrung more than a handshake from it.

This generation is not only the younger, but the young in heart and mind. And Central Texans will search long memory for a comparable period of development in a rural county. Ours is truly a balanced economy and a progressing economy in agri-business, livestock and industry.

And continuity has been kept. That is something.

NEW POLICE CAR

Cameron Police Department received a new patrol car Saturday. The new car, a 1969 Ford, will be used along with a 1967 Dodge patrol car.

Yoemen Break 15-Year Record

The 1968-69 Yoemen came out of 15 years of the doldrums to clinch second place in District 19-AA basketball Tuesday night by defeating Georgetown, 53-40. This was the first winning record for Yoemen cagsters in 15 years.

They are now 6-3 in district play and 14-12 for the year, with one game to play.

Increasing numbers of fans at each game watched this year's Yoemen come up from "poor relation" status to that of a team determined to make a new name for Yoe High School basketball.

Coach Ron Murdock led the squad in their games against teams which in most cases topped the Yoemen in height and experience, and reported each week during the first of 1968 play that the boys seemed determined to make the best of their chances this year. They did.

The Yoemen will play their final game Friday night at Round Rock. Outcome of that game will not affect their place in district. Starting times for the three games are freshmen 5 p.m., junior varsity 6:30 and varsity about 7:45 p.m.

In Tuesday's game Robert Brashear led scoring for Cameron with 12 points. Bobby Simpson added 12, Jerry Richardson 11 and Johnny Steamer 10.

Friday night the Yoe team defeated Elgin 55-50 with Steamer scoring 19 points and Brashear 16.

The Georgetown junior varsity defeated Yoe JVs in a close 48-43 scrap Tuesday night, with Ken McLerran scoring 16 points for Cameron. Friday night Elgin JV took Cameron in a 31-29 game.

Cub Scout Banquet Set For Tuesday

Cub Scout Pack 213 will hold its annual Blue and Gold Banquet Tuesday, February 18 at Methodist Fellowship Hall.

Cubmaster Billy Hornung said about 140 boys, parents, and den workers are expected to attend the banquet which starts at 7 p.m. A film on Cub Scouting and presentation of awards will follow the banquet.

Pack 213 currently has three cub dens and one Webelos den, Hornung said.

Seniors Rehearsing 'Pioneer Go Home'

Yoe High School seniors are rehearsing "Pioneer Go Home", a comedy in three acts to be presented Thursday and Friday, February 20 and 21.

The two performances will be staged in Ben Milam Cafetorium at 8 each night. Admission will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. Advance tickets will be sold by members of the senior class.

Housing Authority Calls New Bids

Cameron Housing Authority is again advertising for bids for construction of a $750,000 low-rent housing project and community building. Bids will be opened at 2 p.m. March 12 in the East Housing Unit office, 20th and Washington Streets.

The Housing Authority first called for bids in November. Six bids were submitted and all were rejected for exceeding the funds appropriated for the project.

Following rejection of the bids, the Housing Authority board members said that plans and specifications would be restudied by architects and the board for possible changes. August Kunz, CHA chairman, told The Herald that some changes had been made in the plans, but "not any that would weaken or make the structures less sound than before."

The 50-unit project will include 17 duplex units, four quadrupiex units and a community building. Department of Housing and Urban Development allocated $753,552 for the project in February, 1967. Part of the allocation was used for land purchase.

The CHA board had hoped that construction of the units could begin before the end of December. The government appropriation did not carry a construction deadline but a year-long waiting list for space in the new Cameron project and full occupation of the present 50 units have emphasized Cameron's need for more low-rent housing.

The new units will be built on two sites. Fourteen regular family units of two and three bedrooms will be constructed at the east side of the present 36-unit housing complex at 20th and North Washington.

An area north of Newton Hospital was designated for 36 duplex units for the elderly. The community building will also be built across from Newton Hospital.

Original plans for the new units and community building called for one-floor design with brick veneer exterior, concrete slab, tile floors finished sheetrock interior.

CHA board members are Kunz, chairman, John B. Henderson Sr., vice chairman, and members, Joe J. Heitman, Henry Litzman Jr., B. F. Grimes. Fred Starnes is executive director of the Cameron Housing Authority.

Voter Count Down; 92% Taxes Collected

Voter registrations in Milam County totaled 7,743 by January 31, deadline for 1969 voters. Over 9,000 registrations were counted last year.

Valter White, Milam County tax assessor-collector, reported that 92 percent of the county's taxes had been paid by the end of January.

N. Milam MOD Collects $1,088

March of Dimes drive in Cameron has netted $1,088.84 to date according to drive chairman E. L. Edwards. Largest portion of donations were received in the Mothers March last week.

Edwards said the Mothers March had collected $611.11. Mrs. Forrest Sapp coordinated the volunteer recruitment and drive. The Interact Club of Yoe High and Cameron Boy Scouts formed a bucket brigade on the highway and downtown that collected $270.82 in donations.

Other drives were: O. J. Thomas PTA drive headed by Mrs. Iris Simmons, $90.32; Marak Community, $49.75; Burlington, $32.45; Ada Henderson School, $17.10 and Ben Milam School, $17.29.

Edwards said final totals had not come in from the South Milam drive or from Buckholts.

REA STOPS FREIGHT TO AREA TOWNS

Residents of Cameron will have to drive to Temple to collect Railway Express Agency shipments formerly delivered in the city from Santa Fe Depot.

REA discontinued shipments of items to Cameron and many other small towns in Texas at the beginning of the year and so far there are no signs of the service being resumed in the near future.

Mayor E. A. Perrin said he had contacted the Texas REA office in Houston and was told the action stopping local shipments had originated in New York and was affecting a large area of the state. An official in the Houston office told Perrin that an attempt was being made to "adjust the situation."

Jimmy Bledsoe, Cameron Santa Fe agent, said the REA action should not result in any loss of freight delivery service to Cameron, as the city is served by Central Freight Lines, Santa Fe Freight, Santa Fe Trail, trucks and bus.

Former REA customers should specify on orders which method of delivery they want, he said.

Terminal point for local REA freight is Temple. Bledsoe said he has asked officials at that office if all Cameron freight could be picked up there by Vaughn Jenness, who formerly delivered the freight in the city, but the request was turned down.

St. Edward's Fund Exceeds 80 Pct.

The $250,000 St. Edward Hospital Development Fund received a momentous boost this week with a gift of $25,000 from the Alcoa Foundation.

Announcement of the gift was made by Howard F. Chrisco, manager of Aluminum Company of America's Rockdale Works.

With the Alcoa Foundation gift, the amount received to date for the building fund now totals $200,537.07.

PRESENTATION

In announcing the gift, Chrisco said, "I am pleased to present this gift on behalf of the Alcoa Foundation to the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word and the St. Edward Development Fund.

The Sisters have done a remarkable job, with obsolete facilities, in providing health care to the citizens of Milam County, many of whom are employees at the Rockdale Works. This gift is given in recognition of their past services and in support of the tremendous building project they have undertaken," Chrisco said.

Robert Ellett, chairman for the fund, accepted the gift.

RESPONSE

"I know I speak for all of the Sisters and the citizens of Cameron and Milam County when I say how grateful we are to the Alcoa Foundation for this generous gift," Ellett said.

"The proposed $1 million St. Edward Hospital is certainly the greatest project undertaken in Milam County," Ellett continued.

"Likewise, this gift is the largest single contribution ever made in Cameron for a community project and should provide the incentive for everyone in Milam County to join with the Alcoa Foundation in helping this building fund to succeed," he said.

Plans for a new hospital to replace the 55-year-old St. Edward structure were formed in 1967. A $500,000 Hill-Burton grant on February 11, 1968 and a pledge of $250,000 by Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word assured three-quarters of the $1 million needed for the new 50-bed hospital.

The drive fund opened July 22 with advance gift solicitations and a public campaign for funds got underway September 10.

The new hospital will be built on property adjacent to the present St. Edward Hospital. Plans call for a completion date of December 30, 1970.

Services Held Here For Homer Allen, Longtime Resident

William Homer Allen died in a local hospital Monday night following a long illness.

Mr. Allen was a veteran of World War I, a member of the First Baptist Church, the Cameron Masonic Lodge and Disabled American Veterans.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the chapel of Green's Funeral Home, the Rev. James Lafferty and the Rev. Alvis Coleman officiating. Burial was in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Surviving are his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Robert Clark of Cameron; a brother, Roy Hensley of Cameron; three sisters, Mrs. Walter Powell, Mrs. W. R. B. Hughes and Mrs. Nila Gilleland Gandy, all of Cameron; and three grandchildren.

Firetruck Driver Hired, City Still Short 1 Patrolman

The City filled one vacancy for fire truck driver, but still has an opening for another patrolman on the police force.

Claude C. Burgess was hired to drive the fire trucks and emergency unit of the city Fire Department. He reported for work this week and moved into the apartment provided above city hall.

Burgess replaces Warren Mc-Call who resigned February 1 and moved to Utah.

Police Chief John Shearin said he still had one opening for a patrolman. He said competition of larger cities where the pay scale was higher made it difficult to attract patrolmen. He said the pay in Cameron, $363 per month plus clothing allowance, was as high or higher than other cities of the same size, but said there was a general shortage of policemen across the state.

5 Banks Named Depository

County Deposits Divided

County Commissioners Monday voted to divide county deposits among the five Milam banks instead of naming one bank as county depository.

The funds will be divided on a percentage basis according to County Judge O. B. Harden. He said commissioners voted to place 50 percent of county deposits in Citizens National Bank of Cameron, 20 percent each in First National Bank of Cameron and Rockdale State Bank and 5 percent each in Buckholts State Bank and Thorndale State Bank.

Judge Harden said that all five banks had submitted bids offering the maximum interest of 5 percent, compounded quarterly, for county deposits. He said Citizens National Bank included in their bid an offer to make short term loans to the county at 2.90 interest. Judge Harden said the county rarely borrowed money except on a short term basis for heavy equipment.

Citizens National Bank will continue to act as negotiating bank for the county, with vouchers paid through them.

In recent years county funds have been retained in the two Cameron banks on a percentage basis. The Citizens National Bank held two-thirds of county deposits and one-third in First National Bank.

Judge Harden said county deposits were at a peak at present with the tax deadline just past. He estimated that as of March 1, when funds will probably be divided between the five banks, that $225,375.00 will be deposited at Citizens National Bank, $90,000 each at First National Bank and Rockdale State Bank, and about $22,100 each at Buckholts State Bank and Thorndale State Bank.

Yoe Chant Goes Into Sub-Tabloid

Yoe High School is beginning publication of sub-tabloid, printed newspaper, bi-monthly Yoeman Chant this weekend.

David Burns, YHS journalism instructor and faculty advisor is directing publication of the new Chant format.

Editor is Kerry Briggs. Sports editor Gary Curtis and feature editor is Thomas Slavik. Copy editors and typists are Janet Marek and April McClish.

Columnists are Sharon Cook and Carolyn Graham. Reporters are David Horelica, Gilbert Folz and Michael Hrozek.

County Replaces '23 Vintage Map

Milam County Commissioner's Court recently purchased a complete set of Aerial Photographic Maps, which covers the entire county and outlines individually owned tracts. The maps are the same as those used by governmental agencies, such as the Soil Conservation Service and replace maps prepared in 1923.

County Judge O. B. Harden said, a professional mapping company had prepared on clear plastic, the perimeter outline of all individually owned tracts of land, with the exception of small residential lots within the corporate limits of the larger cities, towns and villages.

The maps are up-to-date, having been prepared from the Deed Records on file in the office of the County Clerk of Milam County. Each tract of land shown on the maps, shows the name of the present owner of record; the size of the property and shape to scale, with the number of acres as indicated according to each deed.

All sectional maps are bound in book form for easy reference by the public. Plat books are in the custody of the Tax Assessor and Collector's office in the basement of the Court House.

Large wall maps of the County are mounted, and show the area of each of the four County Precincts; number's 1, 2, 3 and 4; also the area of each Independent School District, as well as the Abstract number (458 Abstracts); the name of each Survey, original patent or re-patent, which is the procedure used by governmental bodies to convey the legal fee-simple title to public lands.

Judge Harden said "The Commissioners and I, realizing the need for up-grading information on real property, feel that this modern map system should prove to be of valuable assistance to all property owner's of the county and to the public when in need of accurate information, and invite you to make use of these facilities."

Services Set For Joe Kovar, Milam Resident 60 Years

Joe M. Kovar, 78, died in a local hospital Wednesday at 1:50 a.m.

Mr. Kovar was born in Fayette County Nov. 7, 1890 and was a retired farmer. He lived around Milam County for the past 60 years.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday at St. Cyril and Methodius Catholic Church in Marek, Rev. Harry Bilshi officiating. Burial will be in Marek Cemetary.

Rosary was recited Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at Marek-Burns Funeral Home.

Surviving him are two sons, Joe Kovar and Milus Kovar, both of Cameron; one brother, Emil Kovar of Fayetteville; five sisters, Mrs. Victoria Kuzel and Mrs. Julian Zawadske both of Buckholts, and Mrs. Lola Lazek, Mrs. Millie Kleiber, and Mrs. Frances Kubish all of Cameron; and two grandchildren.

Response is broad—from Cameron to Houston — and enthusiastic—"This is better than 'TV Guide'" notes one—about the test issue of The Herald's "Now Showing."

Replies continue to reach the TV Editor at the rate of about half a dozen a day while phone calls and personal comments are laudatory.

It is the first television supplement in The Herald's history and the second special section added to the Milam County newspaper in a year.

Contacts are being made among prospective advertisers to clear the way for continued publication of "Now Showing" and improved editorial content.

The Herald is surveying the television stations themselves to improve content, both in listings and information.

Channel listings include, Channel 3, KBTX, Bryan; Channel 6, KCEN, Temple; Channel 7, KTBC, Austin; Channel 9 (educational) KLRN, Austin; Channel 10, KWTX, Waco, and Channel 42 (UHF) KHFI, Austin.

Replies have been received from Houston, McGregor, Buckholts, Burlington, Milano, Rockdale, Rosebud, Thorndale and the Cameron area, city and rural.

These are excerpts:

"Thanks for the T.V. guide. It is real handy."

"We have no daily paper. We would like this TV section."

"I was delighted to find this addition to your paper. I hope you can continue it."

"This is a very helpful TV guide. Thanks."

"Am glad to see Ch. 7, Austin (Ind.) shown. Print, however is too fine on listings for easy reading."

"I enjoy The Cameron Herald very much, and the addition of the TV section will make it indispensible."

"This is better than "TV Guide." We hope you continue it."

"We live in Houston, but when we visit (family member) we always like to know what are on the stations there and in the past have had no way of knowing. Consequently, when we go there, which is frequently, we will enjoy knowing what is on which stations."

"I think the TV section is just wonderful."

"Easy to read—has all local stations. Poor planning to run cutout survey on back of this week's prime time schedule."

"Could you have more TV articles on programs and stars, etc."

"Mark call letters by channels, i.e. KTBC—Austin, KCEN—Temple, etc."

"A splendid innovation—magazine locating stations in this area."

"I think it will be a very good thing for us other citizens to have this TV guide. Thank you."

"It is a wonderful idea. Thanks very much."

The Herald invites other comments on the Survey Sheet in the Feb. 27 issue. A decision will be made on how permanent a section the Herald "Now Showing"

Churches Join For Series Of Lenten Services

First Presbyterian Church of Cameron and Abiding Saviour Lutheran Church will have a series of seven united services in observance of the Lenten season.

Rev. Wirt Skinner and Rev. Donald Marquart, pastors of the two Cameron churches, announced the union services this week.

The formal, united worship services will be held at 7:30 p.m. each Wednesday beginning February 19, Ash Wednesday. They will be in the sanctury of the First Presbyterian Church.

Communion service in the Presbyterian ritual will be observed on Ash Wednesday with Rev. Skinner assisted by Rev. Marquart. A Lutheran ritual communion will conclude the series of services on Maundy Thursday with Rev. Marquart serving, assisted by Rev. Skinner.

The ministers said the series of united services was a new experience for the Cameron congregations and followed the urging of official church bodies for closer ties between the Lutheran and Presbyterian churches.

Combined membership in the two congregations is about 350.

Parks Director Says Permits Biggest Bargain

The biggest bargain in the Texas outdoors is the 12 annual permit to State parks, according to J. R. Singleton, executive director of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

"With the approach of the outdoor recreation season, Texans will want to take advantage of this 'package deal,'" he said.

"For $12 per year per car, they can enjoy some of Texas' most beautful scenery, take advantage of the many free facilities in the park, and have available to them the camping facilities for which there is an extra charge."

Without the annual permit, park visitors must pay $1 per car per day.

The $12 permit will admit the purchaser and occupants of his private vehicle to all but three of Texas' 66 State parks.

Thirty of these parks require a $1 per day entrance fee or the annual permit, and six require a 50 cent per day entrance fee or the annual permit.

At present, 18 State parks are exempt from fees either because personnel aren't at the site, park facilities are not adequate to warrant the charge, present visitation rates make it economically infeasible, or operation of the park is on a concession basis.

Duplicate permits for annual permit holders may be purchased for $2.50 each for additional family vehicles.

Entrance fees for Texas' State parks are part of the $75 million bond program for the acquisition and development of parks aproved by voters in Nov. 1967. Money from the fees is used to ay off the bonds.

Committee Finds Medical Shortage Nearing Crises

AUSTIN

There is one doctor available for every 997 persons in Texas, and only one dentist to serve each 2,903 residents.

And these figures hold true only if you live in the right areas of the state. It could be worse. For example, West Texans have one doctor for every 1,366 persons and one dentist for every 3,396.

These statistics were brought out by the Coordinating Board for the Texas College and University System in its "Blueprint for Progress in Higher Eddcation," a plan to meet the higher education crisis facing the state in the next 12 years.

Medical education faces the most urgent need to head off a professional manpower crisis.

Texas medical schools are not able to provide the needed new physicians. More than half the native Texans entering the medical profession each year are educated in other states.

Deans of Texas medical schools report enough qualified applicants to fill the entering classes of several new medical schools had to be turned away this year.

To meet the medical needs, the Board recommended establishment of new medical schools at Houston and Lubbock and expansion of all existing facilities.

The Board recommended a new dental school to established in San Antonio, and that Baylor University College of Dentistry in Dallas be expanded with state

Compulsory Or Not . . . .

The "little red school house" is an anachronism to the present generation of students and any ahead.

"The Little Red School House" is also the name of a committee organized in Austin to oppose compulsory consolidation of smaller school districts with large under the Governor's School Committee proposal.

Consolidation need not be compulsory nor should Texas be 42nd in the number of dentists per thousand in the nation or have only half as many doctors per thousand in West Texas as in the rest of the country, for example.

We can agree that 2,600 is no magic figure on which excellence in secondary and primary education turns. That is the figure proposed by Committee on Public School Education for minimum district enrollment, except where a county unit cannot maintain over 1,600 per county system.

West Texans are governing Texas and small-town leadership heads Texas Legislature committees, where funding for such bills emanate. We are advised, because of efforts such as the "Little Red School House Committee" the compulsory effort will not develop. That is fine.

They like the quality of life and tenor of communities still remembering little red school houses. So do we. So would 71 percent of Texans who live in metropolitan areas, but who cannot make a living in the country.

So would the children of those fortunate enough to enjoy the freedom of open country and clear air and a more leisurely life.

But people know their children and grand children are going to be working in modern skyscrapers and industrial complexes and institutions of all kinds. Kids are compelled to leave the communities of B and A size schools and go where agri-business or industrial employment serves their future in towns at least 5,000 or more

We are confident those concerned with arbitrary consolidation are equally concerned about their children's future, more than whether small community schools remain as community centers and athletic factories for community pride.

It would be little more than a scant 1 per cent of any graduating class in schools of Class B or Class A staying in the small community or nearby farms and ranches. In towns of 5,000 to 15,000, it might run as high as 20 percent, assuming local industry hires youngsters technically trained in local schools, if there is local industry.

These facts are inescapable. Arbitrary consolidation is unpopular and unacceptable to most Texans. But it is both unTexan and unreal to evoke memories of little red school houses when such structures and technics are relics of the past, both cherished and over-valued in their appeal.

Consolidation could be voluntary for districts whose honor graduates, in the words of a high official of Baylor University, cannot compete with the poorest student from larger school districts acceptable at Baylor Universit"

We note where Rep. Dan Kubiak, state representative from Rockdale, toured recently a mental institution in Austin with some other representatives, and generally condemned conditions there. Which is right.

We would suggest that Texas senators and representatives take similar tours of small country schools anywhere of their choosing anywhere in Texas and see what inadequacies exist. We would suggest tours of good metro or small city schools by members of the "Little Red School House Committee."

And then we would suggest a realistic evaluation of where Texas population is growing: some 430,000 gain in Harris County since 1960, some 325,000 in Dallas County, hundreds of thousands in specific metropolitan districts throughout Texas, some in West Texas, and not all in the major cities.

And we would suggest a survey of how many people out of any high school anywhere in Texas go into agriculture, other than agri-business industry which is ag related, but industry like any other.

We believe fair-minded appraisal of the COPSE report through such side examination would reveal the need for consolidation on a broad scale, compulsory or not.

What Others Say . . .

Reform Is Natural . . .

The apprehension some people exhibit at even the mildest form of change is strange to behold. It shows they do not understand a basic ingredient of the nature of man: His quest for progress.

Ralph Waldo Emerson, the 19th Century American essayist and poet and one of the most influential figures of his time, put it well when he wrote:

"What is man born for but to be a reformer, a remaker of what man has made, imitating that great nature which embosoms us all, and which sleeps no moment on an old past, but every hour repairs herself, yielding us every morning a new day, and with every pulsation a new life?"

Progress, to some, is a most important product. But to others it is something to be feared, to be suppressed.

But what is progress but change and reform and improvement? And what else are the current turmoils all about but a natural quest for betterment of life?

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editar:

I don't know if it's aware of it yet, but Congress has figured out a way to solve the farm problem.

As everybody knows, farmers are getting less for their products now than they did 20 years ago, while everything they buy has gone up, the same as everything you buy has. Imagine trying to buy a 1969 tractor with 1949 wages, or an air-conditioned automobile or a color T.V., not to mention a week's stay in a hospital.

Experts have struggled over this for years, and it doesn't make much difference who's named Secretary of Agriculture, the problem continues from one administration to the next and whoever's the Secretary winds up being the most unpopular man in the country, excusing maybe the collector of internal revenue.

But according to an article I read in a newspaper last night, the answer was right in front of us all the time and nobody saw it. It's called the Congressional answer.

As I understand it, Congress has worked out a system of raising its salary without voting on it. It goes this way: if a commission outside Congress decides a Congressman ought to be paid more and the President recommends it, the increase goes into effect automatically unless Congress votes against it.

Consequently, last week Congress got a 41 per cent increase in salary, from $30,000 a year to $42,500, and not a single Congressman had to vote for it.

Understand, I'm not saying they weren't entitled to it, it may be worth more than that to have to live in Washington, and I guess in some extreme cases it's worth $42,500 to a district to have its Congressman there instead of at home, I just don't have enough facts to express an opinion, but what I'm admiring is the way it's attained, and what I'd like to know is why can't farmers get hold of the same system?

All we'd have to do is get a law passed giving the Secretary of Agriculture the right to raise the price of farm products by the Congressional ratio of 41 per cent, effective 30 days thereafter provided the farmers didn't vote it down. I believe I personally could guaranntee to keep most farmers in line on this.

Then when housewives lambasted us for running the price of groceries up, we could say, "Why, we had nothing to do with it. We didn't vote for it. Our hands are tied."

In fact we could go further and say, "Look, we'll make you a fair proposition. If Congress, which didn't vote for its raise either, turns it down and sends the money back to the treasury, we will too."

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Texas Exes Will Convene March 1

Milam County Texas Exes will hold their annual March get together Saturday, March 1 at 7 p.m. at the Rockdale Country Club. Dean Arno Nowotny, University of Texas development consultant, will be dinner speaker for the event.

A 1968 football film will be shown following dinner and a dance will end the evening festivities. All persons who attended the University of Texas are considered Texas Exes and are invited to come and bring a guest. Dan Kubiak is secretary of the Milam County Exes.

Tickets for the evening are $3.50 per person. Reservations may be made by calling or writing Frank Skrivanek, Box 72, Rockdale, 446-5326 or 446-2349 before Wednesday, Feb. 16. The town having the highest percentage of Texas Exes attending will receive a special prize.

IS THERE A BABYSITTER IN THE HOUSE?

Committee Hearings Begin Budget Message Due Soon

AUSTIN

Texas legislators now are busy with committee hearings on dozens of bills the 181 members would like to turn into laws.

Even though Gov. Preston Smith may not have his budget and tax message ready this week there is plenty of business before the legislative committees to keep them occupied.

Perhaps the most talked - about legislation is that dealing with the public school reorganization plan recommended by Gov. John Connally's Committee on Public School Education.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes joined Governor Smith in doubting that the forced consolidation of school districts would pass. And mail the legislators are getting from parents and administrators in the smaller districts leads others to agree that the proposal will have to be modified.

Smith is urging reform of the basis on which state aid is given to local school districts.

PSE Committee's study revealed that a great many school districts are getting bonanzas from the state by failing to properly tax their own property. It seems that the less they collect locally, the more they get from the sate.

Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr. of Paris and Rep. George Hinson of Mineola have signatures of more than half of the members of each house on the Texas State Teachers Association pay raise bill for school teachers. This package of changes will cost the state's taxpayers some $366 million a year, plus $20 million increased state funds for school operation, maintenance and transportation.

Smith said that he will recommend new taxes to finance projects he will recommend in his spending program, But he is not yet ready to say what sort of tax he will suggest.

WETS ACT FAST

Liquor by the drink legislation received instant action in the Senate.

Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso introduced a proposed constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to legalize mixed drink sales on a local option basis, then minutes later, his own senate constitutional amendments committee set it for hearing Wednesday (Feb. 12).

A similar amendment was introduced in the House at the same time by Rep. Cletus Davis of Houston.

Both Lieutenant Governor Barnes and Governor Smith gave the amendment a cautious approving nudge.

Barnes said he viewed prospects for approval of liquor-by-the-drink as improving and added he feels "people ought to have an opportunity to decide the issue" by popular vote.

Smith made an almost identical observation and noted the proposal advanced by Christie and Davis gives voters "several checks" through local option elections.

Constitutional amendments must receive a two-thirds vote of both houses of the Legislature before they can be submitted for approval or rejection of a majority of qualified voters.

The Christie - Davis proposition would delete the old constitutional ban on "open saloons." It would empower the Legislature to "regulate the manufacture, sale, possession and transportation of intoxicating liquors, including the power to establish a state monopoly on sale of distilled liquors."

A separate bill spelling out the recommended regulations to take effect on passage of the constitutional amendment will be introduced later. If the amendment fails to get two-thirds support, the sponsors will try to pass the bill anyway and risk a law suit challenging constitutionality.

Barnes predicted some senators who oppose liquor-by-the-drink will go along with submitting the issue to a vote. One of these, Sen. Oscar Mauzy of Dallas, is a co-author of the proposed amendment.

TEXAS AND JUSTICE

Governor Smith has announced the beginning of detailed studies by the Criminal Justice Council to develop a State plan for improving all segments of law enforcement and the criminal justice system. Such a plan must be submitted to the U.S. Justice Department by June 1 for Texas to take part in the $1.3 million Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968.

Smith also announced several appointments to the Criminal Justice Council. He named Hugh W. McLeland, Austin management consultant, as program director for research and development. C. G. Conner, inspector of the Inspection and Planning Division of the Department of Public Safety, was named program director for Law Enforcement and Crime Prevention. William H. Gaston, of the Texas Department of Corrections at Huntsville, was selected to serve as program director of post sentence processes.

MRS. FREDDIE FLORES

Flores, De La Rosa Repeat Wedding Vows

Miss Mary Louise De La Rosa and Freddie Flores exchanged wedding vows in a formal, doublering ceremony January 11 at Blessed Sacrament Church, Cameron. The Rev. Jimmy Greenwell officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis De La Rosa of Cameron. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Abraham J. Flores of Rockdale.

Given in marriage by her brother, Zeke De La Rosa of Temple, the bride wore a formal length gown fashioned of imported pure silk peau de soie in a diamond white combined with imported French re-embroidered Alencon lace frosted with seed pearls. The train, entending to a chapel length, unfolded from the back neckline in a cluster of pleats, creating a Watteau effect.

Her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion fell in tiers from a forehead spray fashioned of lace and satin petals rimmed in seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and lily-of-the-valley.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Virginia Garcia of Dallas. Miss Belien Vasquez of Cameron, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Josephine Corona of Cameron, Mrs. Gloria Flores of San Antonio, sister - in - law of the groom; Mrs. Connie Medrano of Dallas, sister of the bride; Mrs. Irene Mendez of Elgin, Mrs. Virginia Rangel of Cameron, Miss Victoria Vasquez of Cameron, cousin of the bride.

Also Mrs. Carolyn Cortez of Rockdale, Mrs. Olivia Moraga of Rockdale, Miss Mary Flores of Rockdale, sister of the groom; Miss Anita De La Rosa of Cameron, niece of the bride; Miss Belia Flores of Rockdale, sister of the groom; Miss Mary Ann Flores of Rockdale, Miss Linda Delao and Miss Paula Galivan, both of Cameron; and Miss Melba Reyna of Temple.

The attendants wore street length gowns fashioned of emerald green velveteen for the empire bodice and matching green satin bell-shaped skirts. Each carried a single long-stemmed white mum. The maid of honor was identically gowned, in white.

Flower girl was Martha Medrano of Dallas, niece of the bride. Train bearer was Sandra Flores of Rockdale, sister of the groom. Ring bearer was Mariano De La Rosa, Jr. of Cameron, nephew of the bride.

Attending his brother-in-law as best man was Ruben Garcia of Dallas.

Groomsmen were Damon Corona of Cameron, Felix Flores of San Antonio, Charles Medrano of Dallas, Maurilo Mendez of Elgin, Conrad Rangel of Cameron, Mateo Vasquez of Cameron, cousin of the bride; Joe Cortez of Rockdale, Joe Moraga of Rockdale, Joe Roland Rodriguez of Houston, cousin of the groom.

Also Lupe Molina of Cameron, Mickey Baca of Rockdale, Henry Masiel of Rockdale, cousin of the groom; Frank Carlos of Elgin, Camilo Vargas of Cameron and Augustine Santos of Temple, nephew of the bride.

White gladiolas decorated the altar. Music was furnished by Miss Mary Luna and the church choir of Cameron. Guests were registered by Mrs. Rosa Santos of Temple, sister of the bride.

A reception was held following the ceremony at Miguel Munor Hall. The bride's table was centered with a wedding cake shaped in the form of a cross and decorated with a miniature church, bride and groom and attendants.

A wedding dance at National Hall featured Rocky Hernandez and orchestra from Temple.

The bride is a 1968 graduate of Yoe High School, Cameron. The groom attended Rockdale High School and he is currently stationed at Fort Hood.

The couple are making their home in Harker Heights.

KEYS TO BOOKS PROGRAM TOPIC FOR DELPHIANS

The Cameron Delphian Club met February 4 at the home of Mrs. J. A. Bowling with Mrs. J. H. Thomas serving as co - hostess. Mrs. A. W. McCullin, president, conducted a short business session.

The pledge of Allegiance to the American flag was led by Mrs. Alvin Dusek. Mrs. W. R. Newton read the club collect.

Mrs. Carroll Green introduced the speaker, Mrs. John Rossen, whose subject was "The Heritage of Literature in Texas." The informative talk stressed the fact that as a country develops the value of its literature increases.

William Sidney Porter (O. Henry), George Sessions Perry and Katherine Porter were recognized as Texas authors who had moved to the East. Walter Prescott Webb, J. Frank Dobie and Roy Bedecik were the three mentionend as being truly native and their works characteristic of Texas. Andy Adams work was listed as contributing to the Texas store of literature.

Refreshments were served from a cut-linen covered table featuring a valentine centerpiece. Mrs. Carroll Green poured spiced tea and Mrs. E. J. Burkes served cherry congealed salad.

The club adjourned to meet February 18.

PROGRAM, SHOW PLANNING FOR CLUB MEETING

Mrs. Monroe Fuchs presented a program on Crinums for Fleur de lis Garden Club Tuesday night. Mrs. Frank Luecke was hostess for the meeting and Mrs. Louis Elley was co-hostess.

Following the program Mrs. James Camp presented schedules for the Spring Flower Show and club members drew for places in the arrangement division.

Mrs. Forrest Sapp presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Durwood Cobb reported that shrubs had been planted on the north side of the Yoe High band hall in observance of Arbor Day. Three new members were elected. Mrs. Dana Kestenbaum, Mrs. Thomas Raymond and Mrs. William Kelm.

Desert and coffee were served in the dining room to 17 members and three guests, Mrs. Roy Chester, Mrs. Eugene Fox and Mrs. Delbert Burleson.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heine were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wuthrich of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Potts of Lawrence Chapel, Mr. and Mrs. Donny Heine and children and Edgar McDaniel of this community.

BPW REVIEWS CLUB PROJECTS PAST, FUTURE

Monday evening, February 3, the Business and Professional Women's Club met in the home of Mrs. Mary Houston, with ten members present.

Reports of the various club committees were called for by the president. Special attention was directed to accomplishments of the club year beginning May 1, 1968 to date. Nine different projects and contributions had been proposed and completed during the intervening months.

A lengthy business session was then held for the discussion of affairs confronting the club at the present time.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess and a social hour was enjoyed.

WSCS WELCOMES NEW MINISTER

The Womens' Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met for a general meeting in the Church Fellowship Hall, Tuesday, February 4, at 9:30 a.m. A social period to welcome Rev. and Mrs. Alvis Coleman preceded the meeting. Coffee, orange juice and sweets were served by Mesdames W. A. Bonds, Bob Terry and John Howard.

Mrs. Robert Clark was in charge of the program, Two In a Tussle. She was assisted by Miss Mary Yoe and Mrs. John Henderson. Mrs. John Rosson was pianist.

LANGUAGE EXPLOSION—

The English language seems to be undergoing what might be called a "language explosion."

Dictionary editors are hard - pressed to keep up with it. For instance, the 1969 edition of World Book Dictionary contains 14,000 words and phrases that were not in the 1968 edition. Editors had to add 150 pages to jam in all the new words.

But where do the new words come from? How could editors find 14,000 new entries? Do that many new words develop in such a short time?

It seems as though forming new words is everybody's business -- the politician, the scientist, the economist, the fashion designer, the man on the street, and of course, the teen-ager.

What new words or expressions have the politicians given us recently? Well, there's conspiracy of silence, which means "a conspiring to keep something wrong, damaging, etc., from being divulged."

And then there's gaposis, meaning "any conspicuous or abnormal gap, deficiency, etc." Now when you read about the credibility gap, you'll understand gaposis.

Here is a handful of the new words and phrases added to the World Book Dictionary for 1969. How many can you identify?

—aerial jeep, Alateen, ballhawk, beat man, beefcake, body check brain-picking, British English, car jockey, campy, center-left, chicken colonel, cliffhang, Colonel Bogey, cutesy.

—dawn patrol, daymare, deep six, defang, didact, diploma mill, disadvantaged, dodo ball, ducky, dysphemism, earthshaker, easy money, end-run, Escoffier, eye - popper, familygram, fifth estate, file 13, flab, flappable, freedom walk, funk, ghost surgery, glass cloth, goodie, gramophile, gucky, groupthink.

—Head Start, hobbit, in-joke, inner space, instant replay, Jane Q. Public, I-Thou, jet bus, knuckleballer, lachrymist, lotusland, make do, Medicaid, megacity, meshuga, Mitty, nebbish, NFL, nudnik, off-hour, old-shoe, ordered pair, plain-Jane.

—R and R, read-in, rice Christian, roadeo, schlepp, schlock, ski bum, sheila, shook-up, slanguage, space gun, squaw winter, suitcase farmer, swingback, Synanon, telephonitis, ten-percenter, tin god, tin pants, underground film, video recorder, Vietnik, wailing wall, yoohoo.

Some of these words and phrases have been around for a long time, of course, as slang or argot. But now that they're in the dictionary they're official.

Milano News

By Mrs. Billie Warren

The Milano PTA met last Thursday night in the school cafeteria. Dr. David Karney of Cameron, spoke on Sex Education. After his informative talk a question and answer discussion was held.

Mrs. Geneva Paceley presided at the business meeting. A report was given on the birthday calenders which the PTA is sponsoring. Miss Dallie Young's sixth grade class won first place and Mrs. Pearl Williams' fourth grade class won second place. These classes will be given a Coke party for selling the most calenders. The 10th grade sponsored by Roy Hensley won the attendance banner. A social hour followed with Mrs. Joy Walker and her Homemaking students serving as hostesses. Refreshments of cookies and punch were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Champion visited Mr. and Mrs. Rogers Holt and son in Bryan Saturday night.

Mrs. Theo Telg and children, Mrs. Bell Tyson of Maysfield, Mrs. Ruby Morris and Mrs. John Simmons of Cameron and Mrs. W. L. Elsenburg and grandson, Barry Graham spent last Friday in Austin. That afternoon, Tammy Telg appeared on the "Uncle Jay" television show in Austin to celebrate her 3th birthday.

Mrs. Myrtle Morgan has returned to her home here after being a patient in St. Edward Hospital in Cameron for the last month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barfield visited with his mother, Mrs. Ora Barfield, who is a patient in a Dallas hospital over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Porter spent Sunday in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Joe Peyton and Tracy Ann in Palestine.

Dinner guests Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lopez were Mrs. Phillip Lopez of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Dickie Hurt and family of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hurt, Mrs. Alvenia Hurt, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Garrison and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Paceley and family and Mr. and Mrs. Amil Lopez Jr. all of Milano.

Bro. and Mrs. Jim Barnett of Caldwell visited Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Corbin last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Houston and family of Garland visited in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Haddox over the weekend.

Mrs. W. N. O'Neal has been transferred to St. Joseph Hospital in Houston.

Mrs. Clifton Lake and granddaughter, Beth of Houston, visited in the home of Mrs. Lake's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Corbin Monday and Tuesday.

Several from here attended the singing held at the Calvary Baptist Church in Hearne last Sunday.

Recent visitors of Mrs. Zelma Boggett were her son, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Baggett and family of Pasadena.

Recent visitors of Mrs. Zelma Baggett were her son, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Baggett and family of Pasadena.

Wes Barfield spent last weekend in the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ryan in Chriesman.

The Young Homemakers entertained their husbands with a Mexican Supper last Monday night in the homemaking cottage. A menu of Enchaladis, Beans, Spanish Rice and assorted salads and chips and lime sherbert was served. After the dinner games of forty-two and dominoes were played.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Woods of Rockdale visited in Milano last Saturday.

Emergency Care Will Be Taught At Free Course

The first practical course on emergency care and transportation of the sick and injured to be held in the Central Texas Area is scheduled February 26, 27, and 28 in the auditorium of the McLennan County Red Cross Building in Waco.

Invited to attend the three-day course of lectures and demonstrations are ambulance attendants, policemen, firemen, safety engineers, rescue squads, nurses, public health, civil defense, and other officials or private citizens dealing with the handling of persons who are sick or injured due to accidents.

The course is given free of charge and is expected to attract attendance from a seventy - five mile area around Waco. It is given by the Texas State Department of Health and the McLennan County Medical Society in cooperation with the McLennan County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Doctors and nurses from the Waco area and members of local police and fire organizations and others will speak and demonstrate on a wide range of subjects, including resuscitation, cardiac massage, splinting of fractures, burns, and other medical emergencies. Aid to snake and spider biet victims, smoke and gas hazards, handling of emotionally disturbed patients, emergency childbirth, and traffic control at the accident scene will be covered.

Monroe To Play Santone Tourney

Danny Monroe of Cameron will be among a number of high school golfers who will compete in the Tournament of Champions in San Antonio on Sunday and Monday February 16 and 17.

The tournament is being sponsored by the Northeast School District of San Antonio and will be played on the Canyon Creek Country Club golf course. Twenty seven schools in the area have entered golf teams in the event, and five other players, including Monroe, will participate as individuals.

Tom Moseley, Robert E. Lee High School coach, will be tournament director. Danny received an invitation from him recently to compete in the two-day event.

This will be the third time Danny has entered a tournament in San Antonio. Last summer he finished in the first flight in a meet which was played on the Olmas Basin Golf Course.

Danny, a Yoe High senior and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dana Monroe, is getting wide recognition as an amateur golfer. Among other events he competed in last year was the State Amateur in Conroe in June, and in October he joined a Robert E. Lee High School team as a guest player in a meet with a University of Houston freshman team on a Houston golf course.

Army Private First Class Dwight L. Colbert, 18, son of Mrs. Dorothy M. Colbert of Cameron, was assigned January 13 to the 2nd Infantry Division in Korea, as a tank driver.

Lt. Col. Edwin D. Lehnert, right, receives his new rank from Major Gen. Rasmussen at Armed Forces headquarters in Vietnam. Lehnert is the son of Mrs. E. A. Lehnert of Rt. 1, Cameron and will be stationed at Ft. Hood after his Vietnam duty is ended in March.

Life Membership In Rogers PTA Honors Principal Chervenka

Johnny L. Chervenka, Rogers High School principal, was awarded a Life Membership in the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers at a meeting of the local chapter Monday night.

Rogers High students Marsha Guess and Marilyn Smith presented a skit depicting events in Chervenka's life. The skit traced his journey from the farm to the University of Texas, his service in the U.S. Army, his first year as teacher in Granger High School, and his becoming principal of RHS in 1947.

He has taught Czech and sometimes Spanish along with his duties as principal. Chervenka also was a member of the New Colony Band under I. J. Bacha, which later grew into the first band at Rogers High School with Bacha as leader.

Mrs. Wilbur Jackson presented the life membership pin and certificate.

Elgin Men Charged In Hubcap Theft

Two Elgin men were arrested Saturday in connection with the theft of 4 hubcaps valued at $100. One, arraigned before Justice of Peace Jesse Brock, was released on bond.

Police Chief John Shearin said the hubcaps were taken following the Cameron - Elgin basketball game here Friday night. He said the men had been traced through an auto license number reported by a witness to the theft.

Chief Shearin said it was the second hubcap theft in Cameron since January.

Join Oldsmobile's Great 88 Escape. Step into the big-car world without overstepping your budget.

Once you move into 88's big-car world, you've got yourself a lot of basic value.

But we don't stop there. We always put extra values into an Olds 88 that keep it way ahead of its price.

Like new guardrails built in the doors for added security.

And a new anti-theft ignition, steering and transmission lock system.

Even a pushbutton ashtray.

They're little things that make the big things about an 88 that much more enjoyable.

The smoother, softer ride on its new, longer, 124-inch wheelbase.

The quiet comfort of that roomy, big-car body.

And the big, responsive Rocket V-8 engine.

Go let an Olds dealer show you: you're closer to Olds than you think.

Teacher Pay Raise, Equal Rights Join 200 Bills In House Hopper

Momentum is increasing in the Austin Legislature with 200 bills introduced in the House by February 7, Rep. Dan Kubiak reported this week.

Bills co-sponsored by Rep. Kubiak included the teacher pay raise bill and one establishing equal rights for women in Texas. Rep. George Hinson of Mineola, chairman of the Public Education Committee, co-sponsored the pay raise bill which was introduced in response to requests by the TSTA.

"It is sad to believe," Kubiak said, "that in the 20th Century we are still harnessed with the horse and buggy laws that jeopardize the rights of women in this state." The equal rights for women bill was co-sponsored with Rex Braun of Houston.

Senate Bill 55 was favorably passed by the Public Education Committee. The measure proposes a 10 percent increase in retirements for state employees and teachers.

House Bill 107 was presented to protect Texas housewives from buying second and third rate eggs from California and Mexico which are being packaged in Texas egg cartons. Kubiak said Pryce Metcalfe Jr. of Franklin brought the problem to his attention last fall.

Rep. Kubiak was among nine representatives visiting the Central Brazos Valley unit of the Austin State Hospital. "In general the unit (built and furnished in 1936) is run down and repairs and more facilities are needed," Kubiak said.

"Dr. Laosa, director of the Psychiatric Division, pleaded with us for more funds to better maintain and operate the unit."

Two time changes for Rep. Kubiak's radio report were announced. Cameron's KMIL will have the report each Monday at 5:20 p.m. and KTAE at 12:45 p.m. Sundays, with KAWA giving highlights of the report on their news programs during the day.

TOWN and COUNTRY

ASCS

By Alva E. Sanders

Advance payments have been announced for the 1969 Commodity Programs. Producers signing up February 3 through March 21 to participate in the 1969 Feed Grain and Wheat Programs (as well as certain small cotton farms) can request advance payments of up to 50 percent for voluntary extra acreage diversion. This is the maximum advance that can be made on the diversion payments.

Feed Grain and wheat producers may receive, upon request, up to 50 percent of the estimated diversion payment for their farm. This is for acreage which producers voluntarily retire from production beyond that required to qualify as a participant.

For cotton, there is no acreage diversion program in 1969. However, planting cotton is not an eligibility requirement to receive a special payment for small farms with allotments of 10 acres or less (or projected production of 3,600 pounds or less). These can request up to 50 percent advance payment based on a total of 11.26 cents per pound on the projected yield of 35 percent of their effective allotment.

County Agent's Notes . . .

CottonProduction Meeting Friday

By J. D. Moore

The Milam County Cotton Production meeting will be held Friday night, February 14, at 7:30, in the Thorndale High School Cafeterit, Fred Elliott, cotton work specialist, and Reed Green, entomologist, will give the program. This program is sponsored by the Thorndale community Farm Bureau in cooperation with the Texas A&M Extension Service. All cotton producers, seed and fertilizer dealers, and others interested in the cotton industry are invited to attend.

COUNTY CROPS COMMITTEE

Nineteen farmers and industry men attended a dinner at the Texan Cafe Monday night, February 3, to recognize those who completed 1968 crop demonstrations and set up plans for the 1969 crops and fertilizer tests. The 1968 county test report was reviewed, chemicals for 1969 were discussed and plans were made for the current crop year. A tour will be set later to visit these county test plots.

Those attending were Coleman Duncum and Wilburn Beckhusen, co-charimen of the committee, who along with Perry Edwards representing the Geigy Co. were sponsors of the dinner. Also, Gene Hillman, Skipp Hobbs, Jerry Hail, Jerry Singleton, Wayne Blaylock, Gene W. Klein, Hugo Aignor, Frank Kratochvil, Anton Moraw, Joe P. Mueck, Gene Angell, John A. Smith, E. J. Provasek, Erwin Fuessel, Ted Boyer and J. D. Moore, Milam County Agent.

Tests to be conducted by this group this year included grain, cotton and corn varieties, fertilizer and trace minerals, test, chemical weed and grass control in crops and pastures.

FEBRUARY REMINDERS

All fruit and nut trees should be pruned and sprayed with a dormant oil spray. Shrubs and landscape plants should be pruned except the flowering type. These should always be pruned after the flowering stage.

A good dormant spray should be put on all shrubbery following the "thinning" out to control insects of the scale family. For this purpose add to 1 gallon of water 2 tablespoons of a dormant oil, 2 tablespoons of Deazinon and a thimble full of liquid detergent.

Rose bushes should be pruned. Shape the plants by cutting the strong canes to a uniform height of 15 to 20 inches. Climbing roses should be pruned just after they have bloomed each year. The pruning will stimulate laterals to develop and continue to elongate and eventually cover the trellis.

Guides for controlling insects and diseases of most all plants are available at the county agents office. These should be on your "drawing board" in order for the purchase of the needed insect and disease control materials.

GRAFTING PECANS

A number have indicated an interest in learning how to graft pecans. Detailed instructions for storing bud and graft wood are included in the leaflet on how to graft and bud pecans. This too, is available.

Wood for grafts andn budding should be cut and stored in February. Obtain and follow instructions from the county agent. It will be impossible to go to each persons home to teach the techniques of this work. If those interested will organize into small groups, the county agent will show you how. Make plans to start grafting by April 1.

FIRST SHIPMENT TO MARSHALL—Alcoa's Rockdale Works made its first shipment of three-eights inch redraw rod to the company's new cable mill at Marshall last week. Marshall Works will fabricate the 121,000 pounds of rod into electrical conductor as it begins operation. Rockdale Works will be the principal supplier of aluminum for the new Marshall facility which is Alcoa's third plant in Texas.

By Mrs. Ralph Heisch

Corporal Tim Worby of San Diego, Calif. visited in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Worby last week.

Mr. Willis Cast who has been a patient in Scott and White Hospital in Temple for some time, came home last week and is reported to be doing some better.

Mrs. Darrell Conn, also a patient at Scott and White Hospital, came home Saturday. We are indeed glad they are both home again.

Mrs. Linda Miller and Scott of Dallas were weekend guests of Linda's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Linke.

The Mission study book, In Alona Land, was taught church wide by Rev. Dean Parmer Feb. 12 and 13 at 7:30 p.m.

Friends from this community to attend the funeral of Mr. Locklin were, Mrs. Hazel Clark, Mrs. Andrew Garner and Mrs. Hugh McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Kay of Troy visited her mother, Mrs. F. W. Worby Sunday afternoon.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heine were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wuthrich of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Potts of Lawrence Chapel, Mr. and Mrs. Donny Heine and children and Edgar McDaniel of this community.

Mrs. Emily Linke and Thomas Blocker visited in Minerva with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tomerlin Sunday.

Wages Up For Some Farm Help

COLLEGE STATION

The minimum wage for hired farm workers went up from $1.15 to $1.30 per hour on February 1, 1969, according to James I. Mallett, farm management specialist of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Farm employers who used more than 500 man-days of farm labor in any calendar quarter of the preceding year are required to pay the minimum wage during 1969. Immediate family members and hand harvest pieceworkers who commute from their own home and worked less than 13 weeks in the preceding calendar year are not included in the man-day count. In addition, man-days of agricultural workers employed by a bonified contractor are not included in the man-day count, Mallett says.

A man-day, for determining the 500 man-day count, is any day an employee worked one hour or more. Each 7-day period during which an employee worked one hour or more on one or more days is counted as one week for the 13-week test.

Certain employees are not covered by the minimum wage. These include immediate family members, hand harvest pieceworkers who commute daily and worked less than 13 weeks in agriculture during the previous year, migrant minors, 16 years old and under who do hand harvest piecework paid at the same rate as their parents on the same farm.

• Jones Prairie

By Mrs. Bill Thweatt

We have a couple of new families in our town. Well, not really new, they've moved back. Mr. and Mrs. "Butch" Van DeWeighes and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee Baggerly, Ernest, Lisa, Nadine and Ray. Both families moved here from Hearne.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Garrison announce the marriage of their daughter, Bobbie Nell Mitchell to Robert Shims. They were married Friday, Feb. 7 at the Church of Christ in Lake Jackson. Rev. David Engerman preformed the double ring ceremony. Relatives of the bride to attend included Mrs. Bob Garrison, Darlene and Jackie Mitchell and their friend, Debra. Relatives of the groom attending included Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shims, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shims, Lynn and Lisa Shims. After a reception in the bride's home the couple went on a wedding trip to Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barker of Aransas Pass visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee Baggerly, Mr. Lynn Reese and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Kirk spent the weekend in Lake Jackson wth the Wendell Kirk family.

Staci Hux of Cameron spent last Thursday night with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Butts.

Mrs. Lee Roy Berhinger and Aaron Roy of Waco spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fuller.

Mrs. Koye Cass and Kay visited in Cameron Monday afternoon with Mrs. Ella Cass at the nursing home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Buckholts of San Antonio spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Fuller. Mrs. Fuller visited this week in Sulpher Springs with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melton.

Mrs. Mildred Ely and Olan Wilson enjoyed a beautiful Sunday at Navarro Mills Lake with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lagrone have purchased Mrs. Lillie Harris' house and Mrs. Harris will be living in Mrs. Lummus' rent house that the Lagrones moved from. Mr. Sammy Harris of Houston was here over the weekend to help his mother move.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lee, Craig and Kelly visited Sunday in Milano with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gene Miller.

Mr. Ben Cass and Mr. Herman Lange are patients in the Hearne General Hospital at the time of this writing.

Mrs. Roger Kingsley spent several days recently in Cleveland with her brother, Mr. Rutherford who had surgery.

The young people of the Baptist Church will be having a Valentine Sweetheart Banquet Friday night, February 14.

There have been some from here in the hospitals this week. Mr. Edward Senkel and Mrs. Steve Burtis were both in Kings Daughters Hospital for a week and Mrs. Frank Garey was in Newton Memorial Hospital. They are all home now and are improving.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lock over the weekend were their children, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Warren and children of Houston.

Mrs. Pauline Freimel and children of Cameron visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sakewitz on Sunday.

Leslie Sakewitz and his sister, Mrs. Pauline Freimel visited in the Arthur Cross home in Belton Sunday afternoon.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aud Matthews on Sunday were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orba Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cochran of Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Janicek of Mt. Pleasant visited in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Svetlik over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Folschinsky of Cameron visited in the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Krause on Sunday.

Mrs. Edwin Gandy and Jo Loftin made a trip to Natchez, Mississippi Saturday and Sunday to help Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCall move.

Value Showdown:

Match these features against what competition gives you for the same kind of money, and you'll have a better idea why more people are buying Chevrolets again this year.

Built-in "guard rails"

There's a strong steel beam built into every door of every 1969 Caprice, Impala, Bel Air, Biscayne, Kingswood Estate Wagon, Kingswood, Townsman and Brookwood.

We call it a side guard beam, and it looks like one of those guard rails you see along the freeway.

That's what it's there for: To guard you. To strengthen the door and put a more solid wall between you and the outside world.

Not a glamorous feature.

But you'll have to admit, worthwhile.

Computer-selected springs

Maybe you'll order your new Chevy equipped to the hilt.

Or maybe you'll order it with hardly anything on it.

Either way, you're going to get your full measure of our renowned ride.

Because we go to the trouble of programming each car's equipment load into an electronic computer.

The computer then tells us exactly which springs to use, depending on the car's weight and the way it's distributed.

Chevrolet, the only car in its field with computer-selected springs.

Fenders inside fenders

We could have skipped this. (The other cars in our field do.)

But we're as anxious as you are to keep your beautiful new Chevy looking beautiful and new.

So:

Up inside the regular fenders we've placed a second set.

They do all the in-fighting. Catch all the splashed-up rain, slush and road salt. Stop the kicked-up stones.

While your "outers" just sit there looking pretty.

Astro Ventilation

The other two cars in our field give you air intakes down by the floor.

So do we.

We also give you two up on the instrument panel.

And all four of them are adjustable so you can regulate the flow of air just the way you like it.

Even with all the windows closed, you'll be comfortable inside. You get air without wind. Without noise.

Astro Ventilation is standard, now, on all the big Chevrolets.

The theft-thwarter

On the steering column there's a lock.

Only Chevrolet has it, in Chevrolet's field.

You turn the key and it locks three things:

Your ignition.

Your steering wheel.

Your shift lever.

When you own a car this tempting, you don't dare take chances.

Biggest standard V8 in our field

Ask any car enthusiast, he'll tell you:

Chevrolet builds great engines. Especially V8s.

And this year there are six great V8s available for the big Chevrolet. Standard: Our 235-hp 327-cubic-inch Turbo-Fire.

Another thing: We've lowered the price of several of our bigger V8s along with our automatic transmissions and power disc brakes. Which makes it possible for you to buy a '69 Chevrolet for even less money than you could last year.

Show up for our Showdown. You can't lose.

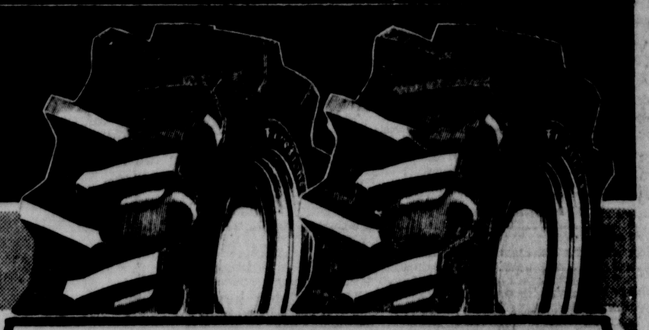

Putting you first, keeps us first.

To School Consolidation . . .

Group Voices Opposition

AUSTIN

A statewide committee to represent rural landowners and those who enjoy living in the country during the expected struggle over school district consolidation in the current decision of the Texas Legislature was announced here Wednesday.

The group, known as "The Little Red School House Committee", is composed of a cross-section of farmers, ranchers and rural landowners from throughout the state. Charles Schreiner III, a Mountain Home rancher, is chairman of the committee.

"We believe the forced consolidation of small school districts, as proposed in the report of the Governor's Committee on Public School Education, will go a long way toward destroying rural life as it is now enjoyed in Texas," Shreiner declared in a news conference at noon Wednesday.

Schreiner pointed out that the Governor's Committee recommends the forced consolidation of Texas' 1,218 school districts into a total of 353.

"This would virtually wipe out 865 community centers, since most rural schools are the primary symbols of community identification," Schreiner said.

He refuted the claim that bigger school districts would automatically provide better education for students. "Mere bigness is not an absolute guarantee of excellence," he said.

"The Little Red School House Committee has been formed to awaken rural landowners and residents of small communities to the unseen dangers of forced consolidation and to acquaint legislators in Austin with the feelings of the rural people of Texas," Schreiner said.

In addition to the erosion of rural communities following the closing of their schools, Schreiner said that other adverse effects would include the bussing of students often many miles away; elimination or serious curtailment of many outstanding programs designed primarily for rural schools, such as vocational agricultural and vocational homemaking programs; the elimination of athletic teams from Class AA and below, with the resultant loss of identity for those communities and a decrease or entire elimination of a voice for the rural residents on school boards which will be centered in urban areas.

"The Little Red School House Committee and all its members certainly want to provide the best education possible for the young people of our state," Schreiner said. "But we don't believe that this proposed forced consolidation program, requiring the elimination of nearly 900 school districts in Texas, is the answer."

E. M. Stevens of San Antonio.

Members of the Little Red School House Steering Committee include J. M. Auld of Mountain Home, E. W. Brown, Jr., of Orange, Howard Derrick of Eldorado, Jack Frost of San Antonio, J. B. Love of Llano, Kerry McCan of Victoria, M. G. Michaelis III of Kyle.

Also John A. Matthews of Abilene, W. L. Moody III of San Antonio, Michaux Nash Jr. of Dallas, W. H. Rivers III of Elgin, Lance Sears of Sweetwater and

Rogers Board Sets Election Date, Approves Three Faculty Changes

At the February meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Rogers Independent School District Thursday night the trustee election for April 5, 1969 was approved. The election will be held in the high school library from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m., with Mrs. Frank Poncik as election judge.

The terms of Clayton Clowers, secretary of the Board, and Edwin Psencik will expire then. Clowers and Psencik filed Thursday night for re-election for a new three-year term.

Candidates are required by law to file with the secretary or the school superintendent by March 4, 1969, school office closing time. Candidates shall present a certificate of recommendation or commendation signed by five voters of the Rogers school district.

Absentee balloting will be available with the School Board Secretary, Mrs. Billie Synatzske, in the school office during office hours from March 16 until April 1.

The Board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Netta Raley as elementary teacher aide. She has accepted a position with the Veterans Administration Hospital in Temple. Mrs. Billie Farrell, library aide, was given the position vacated by Mrs. Raley. Mrs. Betty Faye Wendler of Rogers was elected to the position of library aide. She will officially begin work on February 17.

The board approved the Guidance Plan of the school district for the year. This plan was developed in 1961-1962, revised from time to time, and now newly revised under the leadership of the school's counselor, Stanley Schwertner.

Board members present for the meeting were President C. O. Gunter, vice-president Woodson Waits, Clowers, Psencik, D. D. Ward, H. H. Wright, Randolph R. Green.

Poage Disagrees With Actions On Salaries, Postmaster Selection

Cong. W. R. Poage voiced his disagreement with two actions in Washington last week: the pay raise for congressmen and judges, and President Nixon's proposal changing the method of postmaster and rural carrier selection.

"The Congress in effect voted for a very substantial increase in pay for its own members, for the Federal Judiciary and some other high paid administrative officers," Poage said in his weekly newsletter. "I would not, however, object to any reasonable readjustment of these salaries at a proper time," he continued, "but I think that the example set in this relatively small item ... will certainly make the whole effort to hold down inflation more difficult."

Poage said he voted "no" on a roll call vote which had the effect of passing the increase.

In commenting on selection of postmasters, Poage said "No congressman, whether he be Republican or Democrat, is going to knowingly place someone in a position of this kind who he thinks will not render the public good service because if the postmaster does not please the people, they will blame the congressman."

Poage said he believed postmasters and carriers are more cooperative than they would be "if they were selected only or solely because of their ability to extract the square root of seven or to give the date of the Battle of Tours."

Choosing from those scoring highest on the Civil Service Examination will mean that someone will still have to make the choice, and Poage said "the question then arises 'who will make the choice' and 'why won't it be as political as ever?' "

Job Awaits Grad If Profession Is Chosen Wisely

COLLEGE STATION

If you complete a college education, a job awaits-if you are in the right profession.

Mrs. Wanda Meyer, Extension home management specialist, reports that although 1966 and 1975 projections predict the demand for college-educated workers will balance the supply, an imbalance within professions is expected.

There will not be enough physicians, dentists, engineers and physical scientists, she reports from a Department of Labor survey. A surplus of school teachers, mathematicians and life scientists is expected.

About 6.2 million college graduates will be needed by 1975. Professional and technical fields will call for 4.3 million; managerial occupations .9 million; sales and clerical .7 million and .3 million will be needed in other fields.

Nation's colleges and universities are expected to confer about 6.5 million bachelor and first professional degrees over the nine-year period, says the Texas A&M University specialist. About 1.7 million master's degrees and doctorates are expected to be conferred from June 1966 to June 1974, more than 100 percent more than in previous nine-year period.

Expected surplus of teachers is currently the largest occupation for women graduates. Mrs. Meyer suggests that unless a larger proportion of women enter other high demand professions, the outlook for employment for college-educated women may be less favorable than in recent years.

Short supply of physicians and dentists can be alleviated only if steps are taken to expand sufficiently the capacity of medical and dental schools, she clarified.

Tips From Tippit

By Floyd Tippit, SES

The drinking driver is one of the greatest single hazards facing our nation's motorists on the highways.

A study conducted in Texas shows evidence that 40-50 percent of the drivers involved in fatal accidents had been drinking.

Many states have taken action against the drinking menace on their highways by various forms of "Implied Consent" legislation. Because of the controversy over blood tests, however, two of these states ask only for breath testing.

Driving in today's complex traffic takes skill and an alert mind. Those people who insist upon driving after drinking are selfishly indulging in their own pleasures at the serious risk of the public's welfare. This is certainly an unfair and intolerable situation which must be put under legal control.

The only effective tool to combat the menace of the drinking driver is implied consent legislation. For the protection of the motoring public, Texas desparately needs such a law.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

Form 1040 U.S. Individual ... for the year ... 1968, ending ... 19 ... U.S. Treasury ... Type ... First name and initial (If joint return, use first names ...)

This column of questions and answers on Federal tax matters is provided by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q. - Does it make any difference whether I file the red, white and blue tax form I got in the mail or one of the plain ones the Post Office has?

A. - Either form is acceptable, but the colored form is preferable. However, if you do not file the return mailed you, please be sure to remove the name label and put it on the return you do file. Use of the address label will properly identify your return and speed any refund due.

The use of color on some of the 1968 tax returns is an experiment to determine whether the use of color to highlight certain sections of the form will reduce errors.

Q. - Where can I hire someone to help me with my tax return?

A. - Call your local accounting, legal or tax practitioner association and ask them for the names of qualified people.

In choosing an advisor, here are things to look for:

1 - avoid the man who "guarantees" you a refund

2 - be on guard, if he suggests the refund be sent to his address

You should never sign a blank tax return or one that has been prepared in pencil. You are legally responsible for every item on the return even though someone else has helped you prepare it.

Your advisor should sign the return, too, indicating that he helped you with it.

Q. - Are gifts ever taxed?

A. - The recipient has no Federal income tax to pay but the giver may be taxed if the gift is sizable. The law generally requires a gift tax return to be filed by the donor when a gift or gifts to any one person during the year exceeds $3,000.

However, income earned on gifts is taxable to the recipient.

Q. - I sold my house just before my 65th birthday. Does that mean I won't be entitled to the special benefits for the elderly on those sales?

A. - The law requires you to be 65 or over before the date of sale or exchange to qualify for these special benefits.

Q. - I was married last month. Since my name has changed do I have to change my Social Security number?

A. - When your name changes, notify your local office of the Social Security Administration as soon as possible. Your number will not be changed, but your record will be corrected to reflect your married name.

Q. - Who can file the short form, 1040A?

A. - This form can be used in the following circumstances:

1 - income is under $10,000; and

2 - income consists entirely of wages subject to withholding and not more than $200 from dividends, interest, and other wages.

The Form 1040A cannot be used by taxpayers who either itemize their deductions or who claim special tax credits or deductions such as the retirement income credit, sick pay exclusion, or moving expense deduction.

Further details on filing requirements are given in the instructions that accompany both the 1040 and 1040A tax forms.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Lending Money to Relatives

Suppose you lend $500 to your brother-in-law and he fails to pay it back. Could you deduct that amount as a "bad debt" on your next federal tax return?

It depends. To start with, the tax law does indeed allow deductions for bad debts, including those owed by relatives.

The trouble is, the law also takes an extra close look at transactions between relatives - to see if they really are what they seem to be. Was it truly a loan that you made, or only a gift in disguise? Consider this case:

A man advanced money to his coed daughter so she could publish an art magazine that she had set her heart on. When the magazine folded, the father claimed a tax deduction for this "bad debt."

But in a court test, his claim was turned down. The court pointed out that the daughter had never signed an IOU, had never paid any interest, and had never set a date for repayment. This wasn't really a debt, said the judge, but only a generous gesture by a fond father.

Nor is it enough, in the government's eyes, that the relative feels a moral obligation to repay the money. As one court put it, in rejecting another claim of a bad debt:

"Reliance upon character, ability, and integrity cannot outweigh the lack of businesslike precautions or other evidence of an intention to establish a debtor - creditor relationship."

What if you do handle the transaction in a businesslike manner, with a clear understanding by your relative that he is bound-legally as well as morally - to pay you back? If he doesn't, may you then take a tax deduction?

There is still one more hurdle. For you must show not only that there was a real debt but also that it has become "bad"-that is, uncollectible.

This may be touchy. Family sensibilities may be at stake. You might not want to press for payment simply because you don't want to offend someone close to you.

If that is why you don't collect your money, then you are not entitled to a bad debt deduction on your tax return. You have a right, of course, to keep peace in the family by going easy on Brother Joe or Cousin Fred. But not at the expense of Uncle Sam.

Book Review . . .

'True Grit'

(True Grit, by Charles Portis, is available at the Cameron Public Library.)

Mattie Ross, the 14-year-old heroine of Charles Portis' novel, places high value on the quality of grit, defined by Webster as "obstinate courage; pluck." The one-eyed U.S. Marshall she hires to track down her father's killer has the grittiest reputation for miles around, but the "true grit" is Mattie's.

This short novel offers rare simplicity in the world of overheated, overworded modern books. No excess trappings stand in the way of reading pleasure as we are led directly into the plot, carried straight into action, and reach the finish with pure enjoyment.

No "symbolism" here — it is a plain tale of a plain Arkansas girl with one idea: to track and bring to justice her father's killer. Sound like a B movie or juvenile fiction? The reader may be fooled at first by the Paul Davis jacket design and the fairly large type. But this tale told by Mattie 50 years later should become a classic for the same people who can still enjoy Huck Finn after they've grown up.

Marshall Rooster Cogburn agrees (for a price) to go with Mattie into Indian Territory where the woods are thick with outlaws and search out the killer. They are joined by a dandified Texas Ranger on the trail of the same man. Her shrewdness outwits their attempt to leave on the chase without her and they finally resign themselves to her company.

Mattie never flinches from hardships of the trip or bullets in encounters with the outlaws, but the final test of her grit comes when she is trapped in a pit with rattlesnakes.

True Grit won't be everyone's cup of tea. Readers who have become addicted to bedroom scenes and shoddy characters will shy away from the book, as an alcoholic shies from pure, fresh water. Portis' stark prose is perfect for this piece of pure Americana.

Maysfield

By Mrs. J. P. Wise

Mrs. Roy Newton and Mrs. Ralph Massengale spent Thursday in Austin.

We regret to report Mr. H. H. Hartsfield is a patient in St. Edwards Hospital. He suffered a broken hip in a fall Sunday at his home. His niece, Miss Sue Ida Smith of Kingsville spent the weekend here.

Mrs. E. S. Hollingsworth, Mrs. Hazel Peel of Temple and Mrs. A. L. Massengale of Cameron visited the Garland William's in Rockdale Monday.

Mrs. Eldred Massengale and Mrs. W. C. Cooper visited Mrs. Massengales daughters, Mrs. Billy Barton and Mrs. Ed Weeren and families in Austin Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brown of Katy visited her mother, Mrs. John Thweatt Saturday. The group spent Saturday night and Sunday with another daughter and family, the Paul Kiekes in Austin.

Mrs. Vina White is a patient at St. Edwards Hospital at this writing. The following children were here during the weekend, Mr. Ralph White and Miss Mary White of Dallas and Mrs. Doris Gleason of Freeport.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Henderson and children of Granbury and of Austin and Mrs. Dwayne Jekel Johnny Jr. of A&M University spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Yates.

Mrs. W. C. Cooper visited her son and family, the Carl Coopers of Bastrop last weekend.

Mrs. Eldred Massengale visited her daughter, Mrs. Charles Tabor in Temple Thursday.

COTTON PLANTING HINTS

Of major importance in getting a good stand of cotton is the use of the best quality planting seed available. High quality seed are more resistant to seedling diseases and produce stronger plants.

FEED GRINDER

Before investing in a feed grinder, consideration should be given to the kind or kinds of material the feeder has available for livestock feed and the type of ration to be fed. The most common types are the roller and hammer mills.

HEALTH & SAFETY

Mainly for Mothers

by Carol Hart

Keep Tabs on What's Missing

The little thing that isn't there can cause an accidental fall, burn, poisoning or other injury in the home.

The Council on Family Health, a non-profit organization sponsored as a public service by members of the drug industry to promote home safety and family health, suggests you check your own home for missing items that might jeopardize your family. Here are some real life situations that developed as a result of something missing.

For want of a tack, an aged woman fell and broke her hip. The woman lived with her daughter and both told the doctor they had meant to tack down the curled up edge of the rug. They meant to put the tack there . . . until the very day of the accident.

For want of a bulb in the bedside lamp, a mother broke several bones in her foot. She had noticed the bulb needed replacing and did nothing. When a child called to her during the night, she tried to find her way in the dark and banged her foot into the end of the bed.

For want of a railing alongside the basement stairs, a father slipped and fractured his skull. He had meant to have the railing installed and put it off just one time too many.

For want of a clean label, a mother accidentally gave her small child the wrong medicine. She had remarked several times that the label was so damaged she could no longer read the name or directions for the medication. Relying on judgment alone, she picked the wrong bottle.

For want of a simple box of baking soda near the stove, a housewife received hand and face burns from grease which caught fire. She could have smothered the flames by dusting on the soda — or even salt if no baking soda were handy — but she tried to put out the fire with water, and that only spread the flames.

For want of a pair of tongs in the kitchen, a mother burned her fingers pulling baked potatoes from the oven.

What's the little things missing from your home . . . and family safety?

By Mrs. J. A. Blasienz

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Follis of Pasadena spent the weekend with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cullen White. They visited his mother and brother, Mrs. Roy Follis Sr. and Roy Follis Jr., who are patients in Halbert's Hispital in Rosebud while here. Visitors in the White home Sunday were Leroy White of Temple and Bennie Sargent of Burnett.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Casper and children of Grapevine visited her mother, Mrs. Jim Hauk over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Elo Chollett of Burlington were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chollett and Lester Thursday night.

Mrs. J. A. Blasienz had as weekend guests her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Harrison and Jerry of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mays of Temple. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clark of Levelland have also been recent visitors in the Blasienz home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kohring were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Miller and daughter of Burlington Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ernst were visiting in Rosebud Sunday afternoon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ernst and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ernst and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mayer were in Cameron Wednesday night to help celebrate the 8th birthday of their grandson, Chip Kostroun.

DIPLOMATIC POUCH

Washington, D.C.—The following letters were recently answered by the Department of State:

Czechoslovakia

Treaties have invariably been broken when convenient to the Soviet Union, and they have always struck against us at all opportune times. Look at the rape of Czechoslovakia, where a trend to free-thinking liberalization existed! Let us recognize the Soviet and Communist tyranny and revamp our foreign policy for a realistic "optimum U.S.A. protection now" before it is too late.

M.F.Z.

Princeton, N. J.

Dear M.F.Z.:

You stated that the Soviet Union breaks treaties as a matter of convenience. Although it has repeatedly violated certain major international obligations, it has lived up to others. You may be interested in reading the enclosed "The Soviet Union and International Agreements" for the results of a study of this question.

You cited the example of Czechoslovakia. The U.S. Ambassador to the UN George Ball called the invasion of that country "an affront to all civilized sensibilities." President Johnson stated in part on August 21: "The tragic news from Czechoslovakia shocks the conscience of the world. It is a sad commentary on the Communist mind that a sign of liberty in Czechoslovakia is deemed a fundamental threat to the security of the Soviet system."

Many people have written to express their views on this matter and have proposed a variety of courses of action. The U.S. Government is maintaining a close watch on events in Eastern Europe. Our actions and policies in light of these events will take full account of our broad foreign policy interests.

Middle East

The State Department is not helping the tense situation in the Middle East at all by a lack of firm positive policy, by being swayed by a vociferous organized minority who naturally only tell the Zionist side of the story. It is your job to get the other side of each new crisis. You could get in and really put up a good fight against Communism in the Arab world by making friends and by being good neighbors with all the Middle Eastern nations.

J.A.H.

Waban, Mass.

Dear J.A.H.:

Our objectives in the Middle East is to encourage a peaceful settlement of the problems that lead to conflict. In doing so, we would like to retain the friendship of Israel, as well as the other nations of the area. We look to a peace based on five principles: the recognized right of national life, justice for the refugees, innocent maritime passage, limits on the wasteful and destructive arms race, and political and territorial integrity for all. We believe that the fulfillment of these principles would bring greater stability and progress for Israel and the other Middle Eastern states.

HIJACKING

Isn't it possible for the U.S. Government to notify all countries giving refuge to hijacked planes that they are liable as co-conspirators and or accessories after the fact?

G.M.

Miami Beach, Fla.

Dear G.M.:

Your suggestion regarding hijacked planes is an interesting one. The U.S. Government is of course concerned about this problem. Specifically with regard to Cuba, we are exploring all possible ways of diminishing the risk of further hijackings, including the use of the airlift plane which we operate between Miami and Havana for those Cuban exiles who may wish to return to Cuba permanently.

We do not believe that it would be a solution to the problem to warn Cuba that if it allows hijacked planes to land in Havana we would react by such an action as holding a Cuban vessel.

GOLF IS BIG BUSINESS

Golf course construction and maintenance costs amount to about $15 million annually in Texas. It's figures like these that have brought increased emphasis on turf grass management at A&M.

Mrs. Clifford Walker's sisters, Mrs. Dave Fowler of Troy and Mrs. Helen Smith were guests of Mrs. Walker.

WHIPLASH NECK INJURY

The neck is supported by a column of seven bones called vertebrae bound to each other by muscles and ligaments. The neck is highly flexible and therefore subject to injuries of the type now known as whiplash. While sitting in an automobile the portion of the body below the neck has some support from the seat back. The unsupported and highly flexible neck is often "snapped" when an automobile is hit in the rear by another car.

The bones in the neck may be jarred out of their normal position and cause pressure and irritation on the nerves in that area. Pain, stiffness, and limitation of movement of the neck may result. The chiropractor realigns the bones in the neck thereby removing this irritation which is a basic cause of the discomfort.

Many months of unnecessary suffering can be avoided by arranging for a chiropractic examination as soon as possible.
